UNABLE TO PURCHASE OPIUM, HANGS HIMSELF

Because the price of opium had advanced until he was no longer able to earn sufficient money to satisfy his cravings for the drug, Ah King, a Chinese laborer on the Waiuku Sugar Company's plantation at Waikapu, hanged himself in an algaroba grove between Waikapu and Puunene. The suicide was committed probably on the 15th of April, but the body was not discovered until last Sunday, a month later. A Japanese bee man, forced from his course by a swollen stream, made the gruesome discovery, and reported it to the police. When found decomposition was nearly complete, and it was only through the hat and coat that identification was finally established. The dead man was 45 years of age. His friends in the Chinese community state that he had been dependent over the prohibitive cost of opium, and have no doubt that this was the cause of his destroying himself.—Mail News.

HONOLULU SYMPHONY SOCIETY, IN SECOND APPEARANCE, WINS PRAISE

Well-Balanced and Capable, It Should Be Heard More Frequently in Concert

Delighting music-lovers of the city and surprising visitors by its ability and excellence the Honolulu Symphony Society last night appeared in concert at the Opera House in a manner that reflected unusual credit upon its membership and its conductor, Mr. Carl Miller. A short, well-chosen and well-handled program was given, and the result is one of great satisfaction to those interested in the musical advancement of Honolulu and development of talent among the men and women of the city.

A year ago, the Star-Bulletin made the comment at the first concert of the revived Symphony Society that it was destined to take a commanding part in the musical life of Honolulu. This comment still holds good, with the added suggestion that a concert once a year is not enough, the best results cannot be attained without more frequent public performances. If the attendance last night was only moderately large, it should be remembered that current musical offerings have been and are many and various, and last night's audience ought to be doubled with fewer conflicts of concerts and recitals.

The Symphony Society presented a well-balanced group of musicians animated by an earnestness of purpose and an industry that is good to see. Under the directorship of Mr. Miller, they have merged into a well-knit and compact orchestra. One of the most pleasing qualities revealed last night was that of coherence. Only at far-separated intervals was there evidence of a lack of unity, which fact is the more remarkable because some of the instrumentation had necessarily to be slighted because of lack of players. The wood-wind section strikes one as inadequate from lack of numbers, noticeable in the third movement of the first number, Beethoven's Second Symphony in D, when much of the burden is cast upon the oboes and fagottos. But though the society is restricted as to numbers, it is quite capable of overcoming many difficulties. The program last night was marked by sympathetic interpretation and a spirited precision that pleased the student of Beethoven, Liszt and Rossini.

In point of importance, the Beethoven symphony divided attention with Liszt's Hungarian Fantasia for piano and orchestra. Mrs. Elsa Cross Howard appeared as the soloist in the latter offering and added to the fine reputation she has already made in Honolulu. Her playing is always of the best and last night she showed herself quite able to work with the orchestra for unity of effect and yet never to lose the individuality of the piano parts.

As guests of the Symphony Society, Bandmaster Berger and his men attended the concert and a special price was made for school children.

It is sincerely to be hoped that President W. A. Love and his associates will decide upon another concert to be given early in the fall if not before. The two appearances of the society have fully established it in a strong position here—musically if not financially—and Honolulu should see that in every way the orchestra is maintained, encouraged and developed.

UP TO CITIZENS TO AID MODERN STREET-MAKING

An opportunity will be given all citizens tomorrow night to prove their interest in Honolulu street improvement by attending the public meeting on the frontage tax question in the roof garden of the Young Hotel. After different phases of the subject have been presented by the selected speakers of the Central Improvement Committee, the meeting will be thrown open for general discussion before taking a vote on whatever definite proposition may be offered.

As there is some difference of opinion, between both districts and individuals, regarding the policy that should be adopted, there is likely to be some lively debate. It is expected that the membership of the many improvement clubs will be out in force, as all sections of the city are concerned in the problem of what should be done with the frontage tax statutes. Mayor Fern will preside, and a full attendance of the supervisors is expected.

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Bring back its gloss, lustre, charm and get rid of dandruff—Try the moist cloth

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderline.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderline now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderline, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderline and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.—advertisement.

Stars and Stripes Lowered on Wilder

Completing her final voyage under American registry, the well-known barkentine S. G. Wilder is reported as having arrived at Molokai from the Sound. She made the voyage from Flatery to the Peruvian port in 79 days. The Wilder has been sold to west coast parties and will hereafter fly the Peruvian flag. The S. G. Wilder has been familiar in the coast lumber traffic for many years. She was built at Port Blakeley in 1887. About the same time the Wilder was disposed of three other coast sailing vessels were also sold to Peruvians, the last including the Fred E. Sander and the barkentines Newsboy and John Smith.

NO AGREEMENT REACHED YET IN PEACE CONGRESS

NIAGARA FALLS, Can., May 26.—(Associated Press by Federal Wire)—The South American mediators announced yesterday that every phase of the Mexican situation had been laid before the Mexican and American delegates but that no formal basis had been reached for the treatment of the various issues or any specified order arranged in which they shall be taken up. The Mexican delegates stated yesterday that they believed the capture of the City of Mexico is months in the future and in the meantime it is their expressed hope that a new provisional government will be started which they will be compelled to accept.

DAUGHTERS OF CHINESE CONSUL DISAPPEAR

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—(Associated Press by Federal Wire)—Siao Guala, 15 years of age, and Min Lien, aged eight years, daughters of the Chinese consul-general, Shang Ching Shu, have mysteriously disappeared. The consul-general said last night that the last seen of the two girls by members of the household was when they retired to bed at 10 o'clock Sunday night. At 6:45 o'clock yesterday morning the girls were found to be missing from their rooms. All their clothing was gone also. The Oriental sections of San Francisco and Oakland were searched by the police, but no trace of the girls was found. Shang Ching Shu is of the opinion that his daughters may have been kidnapped by tramps, while the belief in Oriental circles is that the girls were spirited away by enemies of their father. Until Saturday Shang Ching Shu and his family lived in a Chinese hotel here, and then moved to the home of friends in North Berkeley.

"Gentle up town telephones for an officer at once. Burglar in the house." "Let me see," said the captain, "effectively. 'I've got four men censoring plays, two inspecting the gowns at a society function, and two more supervising a tango tea. Tell him I can send an officer in about two hours.'"—Kansas City Journal.

MEXICAN PRESS WOULD STIR UP MORE TROUBLE

Says That Should Peace Over-

Invaded By the U. S.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 26.—(Associated Press by Federal Wire)—El Imparcial yesterday printed a report alleged to have been received from Washington that President Wilson has ordered the American delegates at Niagara Falls to notify the Mexican delegates that if the peace negotiations failed that Mexico would be invaded by the United States army to remain until Mexico was pacified.

The four tank ships belonging to the Associated Oil Company of San Francisco (formerly the Associated Transportation Company) have just been insured in London. The vessels are the ships Falls of Clyde, valued at $130,000, and "Marion Chiboot," valued at $100,000; the schooner Monterey, valued at $97,000, and Santiago, valued at $72,000. The insurance provides for total loss and also to pay claims in excess of $2500 each accident. The vessels are fitted for carrying oil in bulk. The rate on the first three is 9 per cent and on the Santiago 4 per cent.

Burglars blew open the safe in the postoffice at Newark, N. Y., and escaped with $1300 in cash and stamps.
